BACK TO THE PLACE

Really, my life is a nightmare.
I will end up with a heart attack.
Those two nights, baby, you went away,
when you left me all alone.

Maybe you thought that on my side it was okay.
No, baby, you were wrong.
Yes, I am human, all my mistakes I have recognized.
But baby, just listen to me.

Baby, I have trusted you with all of my heart,
even though at times you have made me suffer.
I have forgiven, and I even still had hope that our destiny was meant to be connected.

Baby, baby,
take this weight off my heart,
'cause I know that you still care.
Just come back, so that we can continue.

In my arms I would like to hug you.
I cannot imagine a lifetime without you.
Baby, just come back, so that we can continue.

Let's go back to the place
where it all started, baby,
where it all began.
Let me hear once more the words you said.

Baby, where it all started.
